WILDERNESS FIRST RESPONDER RECERTIFICATION

Sponsored by the Flagstaff Field Institute and NOLS Wilderness Medicine

DATES	LOCATION	TUITION
March 21-23	Prescott, Arizona	$395

COURSE LOCATION

The course will be held at the Highlands Center for Natural History. Here's a link to the course locations and a map on the FFI website. Please arrive at the course location by 7:45 AM on the first day of the course. Arizona is on Mountain Standard Time.

LODGING

There are many, many lodging options in and around Prescott. Prescott is surrounded by national forest, and camping is available in various campgrounds. For more information on campgrounds as well as 'dispersed camping', please visit the Prescott National Forest website.

As Arizona's first territorial capital, historic Prescott also has lots of lodging options. Please visit the Prescott Chamber of Commerce website for more information.

RECREATION

Prescott has many outdoor recreation opportunities including mountain biking and hiking on the extensive trail system in Prescott National Forest and climbing on Granite Mountain, Thumb Butte, the Dells, and elsewhere. Prescott also has multiple lakes within 20 minutes of town and a vibrant downtown centered on Whiskey Row.

REGISTRATION

Tuition in full is required to reserve a spot in the course. The tuition fee covers instruction, textbooks, equipment, and certification cards. Enroll online at the Flagstaff Field Institute website.

CANCELLATION POLICY AND TUITION PROTECTION

If a student cancels or withdraws from the course

- Greater than or equal to 30 days prior to the course starting date, Flagstaff Field Institute will retain a $50 administrative fee. All other funds will be returned.
- Within 30 days of the course start date and throughout the duration of the course all deposit and tuition moneys are non-refundable.
- All course registrations are non-transferable.

In alignment with the cancellation policy, refund or transfers will not be provided for students who are unable to attend the course within the cancellation deadline due to last-minute personal or medical issues including COVID-19. NOLS and FFI strongly recommend the purchase of tuition insurance, and the NOLS preferred provider is MDM Group Associates, Inc. Policies vary greatly so be sure to read each policy carefully, discuss questions with the provider, and ensure that the policy has appropriate coverage.
